

NAME: _____ , _____ STUDENT NUMBER: _____
 LAST NAME FIRST NAME M.I

Ph.D. ENGLISH STUDIES:
 ANGLO-AMERICAN LITERATURE
 Area of Specialization B.

Dissertation: The literature of England, America or any other country coming under Anglo-American influence (provided that literature is in English) as seen in the total framework of the culture which produced it.

I. COURSE WORK

A CORE COURSES 9 units

Grade

- _____ 1. English 299 (Bibliography and Methods of Research)
 _____ 2. CL 309 (Seminar in Literary Theory and Criticism)
 _____ 3. Anthropology 270 (Seminar in Anthropological Linguistics)

B. Areas to be covered in the Comprehensive Examination 12 units

- _____ 1. Dissertation Area(Course: _____) (3 units)
 This examination will be given in two parts. The student will be examined in (a) the literature of his area and (b) the historical (including social and political) and philosophical (including religious) contexts of this literature.
- _____ 2. English literature (Eng 360-365) (3 units)
- _____ 3. Choice of 2 from the following: (6 units)
 _____ American literature (Eng 371)
 _____ Asian literature (CL 340)
 _____ Philippine literature (CL 350)
 _____ Third World literature (CL 360/366)

C. Electives 6 units
 To be chosen from Philosophy, Sociology, and other related social sciences

_____ (Course) _____
 _____ (Course) _____

Total number of units (course work) 27 units

II. QUALIFYING EXAMS BASED ON THE 3 CORE COURSES

The doctoral student must take the Qualifying Examinations as soon as s/he is finished with the three core courses. S/he must fill in a request form provided by the CAL GSO to take these examinations.

GRADE	QE AREA	EXAMINER	DATE TAKEN
_____	_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____	_____

III. LANGUAGE REQUIREMENTS:

Foreign Language Examination Requirement: The student must pass a reading examination in TWO (2) European languages – French, German and/or any other language/s approved by her/his program adviser.

The Language Proficiency Exam can be taken by the doctoral student only after s/he has passed the Qualifying Examinations, after which s/he can take the LPEs any time during the student's remaining course work, as long as she deems him/herself ready for this exam, and with the consent of her/his program adviser. The LPE is administered by the Department of European Languages once every semester (please check with the CAL Graduate Studies Office regarding the date of the exam.).

1. Language Requirement 1: _____
 Reading Exam Grade: _____
 Date Taken: _____
2. Language Requirement 2: _____
 Reading Exam Grade: _____
 Date Taken: _____

IV. DISSERTATION 12 Units

The doctoral student begins his dissertation work only after he has passed the Comprehensive Examinations, after which he can request that a dissertation adviser be assigned to her/him.

TOTAL 39 units